THE GAYNORS IN RECITAL.

To be Given in First Methodist Church Friday Night.

Mrs. Jessie L. Gaynor, with her two daughters, Rose and Dorothy, will give a song recital in the First Methodist church Friday evening, for the benefit of the local public school orchestras and choruses. The following program will be observed: Trio, "I Love the Old Doll Best,"

"Troquels Lullaby" ... . . Mrs. Gaynor
"Slumber Boat" ... . . Mrs. Gaynor
Sung by Mrs. Gaynor, Rose and Dorothy.

Mrs. Gaynor lectured to a crowded house this afternoon, in the high school gymnasium, before the teachers of Salt Lake and adjoining districts.

LOCAL UNION SUSTAINED.

President Joseph N. Webber Treasurer Otto Ostendorf of the American Federation of Musicians decided Wednesday evening in favor of A. S. Zimmerman and the directors of the local musical union in the appeal of J. A. Hauerbach from the decision of the directors. The latter decided last summer that the Buena Vista race track music contract belonged to Mr. Zimmerman, who at that time was acting as manager of Held's band, and lacked an indisputable hold on the contract by only a few technicalities which it was charged Mr. Hauerbach took advantage of to get the job away from Held.

Messrs, Webber and Osterdorf had no difficulty whatever in finding Mr. Zimmerman was in the right, and confirmed the fine assessed by the union, but paid under protest by Mr. Hauerbach, Mr. Webber considered the punishment remarkably light. He said that in some unions, such an offense would have resulted in the expulsion of the offender from the union, The contentions between local theater orchestras and managements were not brought officially before the visiting officials, as it is a mater to American Federation of Musicians de-heater orchestras and managements were not brought officially before the visiting officials, as it is a matter to be settled by the local union with the theater managements.

THE WITCHING HOUR. By Augustus Thomas,

Illustrated with Pictures from the play This remarkable story, written by the author of the play which achieved such a sansational success, is filled with the light of a new idea. How-ever, the story is told in a most appealingly human way, with adroit humor and compellingly strong senti-ment. Telepathy, mental suggestion, hypnotism, the felling points of the hypnotism, the telling points of the drama, are caught and held completely in the novel. An unusual love story is told in The Witching Hour, and there is humor, rich and con-DESERET NEWS BOOK STORE.

LITTLE AUTO VICTIM

Roger Goodrich, Six Years of Age, Succumbs After Hard Fight For His Life,

Roger Goodrich, the 6-year-old son of William Goodrich, 2070 Major avenue, died yesterday afternoon from the injuries received when he was struck by an automobile at Twelfth South and State street just a week ago. A fractured skull and the shock caused fractured skull and the shock caused death.

The police as yet have not located the man who ran the boy down and then speeded away like a craven. Not a trace further than that he has called up Dr. A; A. Bird of Murray several times and asked the boy's condition has ever been secured of either him or the machine he was driving. The sheriff called up Chief Barlow several days ago and stated then that he had heard that Barlow knew the man's name but was withholding it for political reasons. It is understood that Barlow denied this.

The father of the Goodrich boy is a dairyman, and it was while running across the street after alighting from his father's wagon that young Goodrich was struck by the machine as it tore by on its way to the city a; a tion was struck by the matther as it tore by on its way to the city a; a high rate of speed. The boy was caught by the side guards of the auto and thrown many feet, but despite this fact the driver didn't even stop to inquire as to the boy's inquries. Dr. Bird battled valiantly for the life of the boy, but the shock and concussion of the brain cells were too great to be

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Edward McGurrin entertained yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at the Alta club in honor of Mrs. Irene McGurrin of Michigan, the decorations being in the Hallowe'en idea, and other being in the Hallowe'en idea, and other details also. The table had three pumpkins, two filled with fruit, and the other with yellow chrysanthemums, and the place-cards were in pumpkins. Present besides the guest of honor were, the Misses Margeret Walden, Etyan Houston, Rose Evans, Edith Godbe, Elsie Parsons, Winnifred Brice, Virginia Beatty, Frances McChrystal.

Mrs. Pauline Sands entertained the Mrs. Pauline saids entertained the Utopia club yesterday, the rooms being decorated with chrysanthemums, and the table having for a centerpiece a boat-shaped basket filled with fruits and nuts. Four tables were played and prizes won by Mrs. C. C. Crismon, Mrs. W. F. Beers, Mrs. S. C. Snider and Mrs. Matthew Cullen.

Mrs. E. F. Holmes will throw open the Holmes art gallery on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 18 and 19, for the benefit of the Orphan's Home and Day Nursery, the proceeds of admission to go to that institution. Many new pictures have been added to the collection, and in addition to this there will be exhibited a beautiful collection of rare embroideries gathered by Mrs. Holmes from many lands.

Mrs. Edwin Kimball entertains this afternoon at a reception for her daughter, Miss Mary H. Kimball, about 300 invitations being issued. This afternoon Mrs. E. A. Wall is hostess at a bridge tea at the Country club, the decorations being in the autumn flowers, and about a dozen tables

A pretty wedding took place last night at the home of Mrs. Rebekah Edward, celebrating the marriage of her daughter Alice to Joseph E. Burdette, which had been solemnized in the temple during the day. The rooms were decorated in vines and flowers, the parlor in white chrysanthemums were decorated in vines and nowers, the parlor in white chrysanthemums and vines, and the dining room in pink, the table having a centerplece of pink chrysanthemums, and pink hearts strewn over the cloth, while strands of hearts were brought from the chandelier to the four corners. Streamers of ribbon extended to the corners of the room, and other details were in the same color. The bride wore a white lingerie gown handsomely embroidered and trimmed with lace, and carried white roses. She had no attendants. Assisting in receiving and entertaining were Mrs. E. A. Burdette, Mrs. Edward, Miss Ruth Burdette and Miss Annie Edward. Mr. and Mrs. Burdette will be at home to their friends after Nov. 6.

Miss Isabel Halton entertained about 25 of her young friends last night, the parlor and dining room being decorated in white and red chrysanthemums, the library in yellow, and the time being spent with music and games.
